

Introduction to Joey Korn's Remote Spiritual Housecleaning Sessions

Thank you for your interest in my Remote Spiritual Housecleaning services. This article will help you understand the process. If you've already scheduled a session with me, I'll call you at the scheduled time. If not, you can call or email us to schedule an appointment.

To begin with, I'd like to know as little as possible about what's going on in your life, until after I do the dowsing work. After I have given you my assessment of what I've found, we can talk about anything. That's important, because it all boils down to what's going on in your life and the lives of others who are close to you.

Next, I'll give you a brief overview of how I see things with regard to the subtle energies within and around us, as well as a preview of what we'll be doing in our session.

How Others See the Earth Energies

I'd like to start with my understanding of what many call "geopathic stress," as compared to how just about everyone else thinks about it who does any kind of space clearing work, whether remote or on-site. Dowzers and many others around the world believe that there are energies in the earth that cause problems in our lives. They think that your home (or anyone's home) might just happen to have been built in these detrimental Earth energies, and, more significantly, that your bed, your desk, or your favorite chair may have been placed in these energies. They believe that these energies weaken us, weaken our immune systems and, over time, can cause illness and other problems in our lives, hence the term "geopathic stress." It is also believed that they can cause mental, emotional, relationship, and financial problems, just to name a few.

How I See the Earth Energies

I come from just the opposite perspective. The earth energies are here to support us, not harm us. They're our energetic mirrors, constantly reflecting us back to us. We make the Earth energies detrimental with our negative thoughts, actions, and emotions, with our inappropriate reactions to our struggles and strains of life, not the other way around. This includes energy fields related to underground water (what most dowzers consider to be underground streams), earth energy leys, as well as Hartmann, Curry, and Benker Grid Lines. All of these energies are in our homes and offices. Any or all of them can either be balanced and beneficial or unbalanced and detrimental, as to their effect on us. This can be detected and experienced quite easily with dowsing and muscle testing. For the most part, by far, I've come to understand that these energies are caused to be detrimental or beneficial by us. It all starts with what I call the Human Energy Pattern.

Before we get to that, let's talk about dowsing, or what some call "divining." You might have heard of the old timer who uses a forked stick to find a place to drill or dig a well. That's how dowsing started, but I've taken dowsing far beyond finding water or lost objects or anything in the physical world. I use dowsing to explore the world of subtle energies that are everywhere around and within us. Just about anyone can learn to detect these energies with dowsing, yet the most sensitive scientific instruments, meters, and gauges cannot detect these energies. I use L-rods to find these energies, which are L-shaped pieces of wire.

With my dowsing, I have found a crisscrossing pattern or matrix of energies around every human being that I call the Human Energy Pattern. We are connected to this pattern and it goes with us everywhere we go. At the core of the pattern, is what I consider to be the human soul level of the Tree of Life in Kabbalah. (See www.dowers.com/page9.html.) We want our pattern to be clear, balanced, and beneficial, but most of us have some imbalances in our patterns.

How the Earth Energies Become Detrimental

Imbalances in our lives manifest as imbalances in our energy patterns. These imbalances can be found with dowsing, and they affect us, as well as others, as though they were detrimental energies. Let's assume that you start your life with a completely balanced energy pattern, which I consider to be the natural order of things. As you have negative or inappropriate reactions to your issues in life, you cloud portions of your pattern that are related to that issue. As one issue builds on top of other issues, your pattern continues to cloud more and more until parts of it become what I call "out of balance," or detrimental. The more fear, anxiety, anger, jealousy, etc. that you have in your life, the more out of balance you make your energy pattern. Anyone who stands in any of the lines that are out of balance in your pattern will be weakened, which can be easily determined with muscle testing.

The imbalances in your own Human Energy Pattern will reflect out as detrimental earth energies in any room you are physically in or any room you are imprinted in. You can imprint your pattern in time and space anywhere you happen to be, and you always imprint your pattern when you lie down on a physical structure like a bed. At this level, I call it the Bed Pattern. This imprint is a part of you and you are connected to it, no matter how far you are away from this pattern. If you do something to change your Human Energy Pattern, it will change your Bed Pattern, and vice versa.

If your imbalances are strong enough, meaning your anger, fear, anguish, etc. are intense enough, it will extend out, making the same pattern over your entire home, as the "House Pattern." This pattern is in what I call "higher order Earth energy lines or leys related to your home and property." If any portion of your House Pattern is detrimental, all of your House Pattern will be detrimental. A detrimental House Pattern is related to more deep-seated issues in your life. It's all about the intensity of your imbalances.

If your imbalances are even more intense, they can extend into what dowsers call the Hartmann Grid, the Curry Grid, and the Benker Grid, in that order. The stronger your imbalances or the more intense your fear and anxiety, the more detrimental Earth energies you will have in your living environment. It's a matter of the degree of intensity.

Again, most people who do space clearing work would say these energies create "geopathic stress zones" and that they actually cause the problems in our lives. I have come to understand that our negative or inappropriate reactions to our stresses and strains of life cause the earth energies to be detrimental. Doesn't that make more sense?

Dowsers have found that blocking, diverting, neutralizing, or avoiding these energies helps the people living in that particular home. This is true, but what they're doing is indirectly affecting the energies of the people. It's like treating the symptoms rather than the source of the pain. For the most part, if you just balance the Human Energy Patterns of the people living in and/or imprinted in that home with appropriate blessing work, all or most of the earth energies in the home will come into balance and become beneficial. Some energies have to be removed in order to keep the energies of the home beneficial. I determine which energies need to be balanced and which need to be removed when I do the dowsing.

What We'll Do In Our Session

Many people who do remote space clearing work use a map or diagram to represent the home and property, and I used to do that too. However, it occurred to me one day that if I could access the energies of a remote home through a drawing on a piece of paper, why couldn't I access the remote home through my home?

Remember that there are no time and space limitations to these subtle energies. All I need to do this is a name, a request and the physical address of the home, business, or property. I say an extended blessing to connect all of the energies of your home to the remote space. I begin by connecting my client's Human Energy Pattern to a bed in my home. I continue the blessing and call on all of the energies I work with to connect, including:

- The energy fields related to underground water
- Earth energy lines or leys related to the home and property
- Hartmann, Curry & Benker Grid Lines
- Human-related energies, including people living in the home and those who may be imprinted in the home
- Non-human related energies, such as pets

- Electrical fields around appliances and other electrical devices, including larger devices, such as transformers and high tension wires that might be affecting the energies of the home
- Any other energies that may be appropriate for me to be aware of in order to help my client

Once I've said this blessing, I quickly check with dowsing to assure that I have the connection. Then we hang up for twenty about twenty minutes while I do the dowsing and take notes of what I find.

For all intents and purposes, there will be a holographic energetic imprint of the remote home over my home, and a direct connection between the two homes and properties. I can explore all the energies in my home as though I was in your home, and I can find all the energies that are there. I can also do this for business or for large tracts of land.

After I do the dowsing and take notes of what I find, I will call you back and give you an assessment. We may have to do some blessing work together to determine who some of the energies are related to. Once I give you this assessment, we can discuss anything that is going on in your life, because that's basically what it all boils down to.

We Create Our Own Energy Environments

Remember, we create our energy environments with our thoughts, actions, and emotions. The energies in our home are macrocosms of the energies within us, however this can get quite complex. You affect the energies of you home. Other people you live with affect the energies, as well as other people who might be imprinted in your home. There can also be outside influences, such as earthbound spirits and what I call "non-human entities," which we'll talk about if I find them. By working together, we should be able to tell who or what some of the energies are related to. We may not determine who each person is that is imprinted there, but we'll remove their patterns anyway so they no longer affect your energies.

You'll end up with a clean slate. Your energy pattern and the patterns of others who may live with you will be balanced and beneficial. The energies of your home will be ideal to support what you most desire to bring into your life. And you'll be armed to keep the energies that way with what I call my Simple Blessing Process. We'll talk about that during our session and I'll send you more information on it after our session.

Then I'll do a follow-up after about two months. We don't usually get on the phone. I simply connect to the energies of your home, do the dowsing, and I usually just send you email and give you a overall assessment. However, you don't have to wait the two months. If you feel the need, you can call or email us and request an early follow up. Until then, be sure to keep using the Simple Blessing Process. I help you start off with a clean slate. Your energy pattern will be balanced and beneficial, as will the patterns of others in your family and the energies of your home. The rest is up to you.
